

Victory Packaging Acquires Mover's Equipment Services Incorporated

HOUSTON (September 2, 2014) - Victory Packaging, the leading full-service North American packaging solutions company, today announced the acquisition of Dallas-based Mover's Equipment Services Incorporated (MESI). This acquisition marks the third deal of 2014 for Victory Packaging.

MESI is privately owned by Michael, Brian and Troy Tennyson and was founded in Dallas in 1997 with the commitment to supplying quality products with superior customer service fueling the growth of the company. MESI employs 44 professional and technical personnel who have a broad range of skills, expertise and experience.

The MESI acquisition will allow Victory Packaging to grow in the Dallas, St. Louis, Kansas City and El Paso markets where MESI currently has locations, as well as other markets served by MESI. The acquisition will be consolidated into Victory Packaging accounts as of October 1, 2014 and operate under the Victory Packaging name as of that date.

Robert Egan, President of Victory Packaging, views the MESI acquisition as an excellent opportunity to expand Victory Packaging's business. "The acquisition of MESI significantly increases Victory Packaging's presence in the Dallas, El Paso, Kansas City and St. Louis markets and strengthens our moving equipment and packing supplies capabilities. The common focus on unmatched quality and superior service between MESI and Victory Packaging makes for a powerful combination."

Troy Tennyson, Managing Partner of MESI added, "MESI has successfully grown over the past 15 years. Now we are excited to combine with the national reach and resources of Victory Packaging to continue to bring value to our customers."
