

Victory Packaging Contributes to Flood Relief in Houston

HOUSTON (June 1, 2015) –Victory Packaging contributed supplies to families across Houston to provide flood relief. With parts of the city of Houston reeling from devastating flood destruction this past week, Victory Packaging donated over 7,000 boxes and 3,000 rolls of tape for relief efforts. All of these packaging supplies have been distributed to individual houses in need across the community in less than four (4) hours this past weekend. Entire neighborhoods were flooded with over three (3) feet of water and the supplies were very much appreciated.
